

Northern Oil and Gas, Inc. Announces Further Debt Reduction

June 12, 2018

MINNEAPOLIS--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Jun. 12, 2018-- Northern Oil and Gas, Inc. (NYSE American: NOG) today announced that it has entered into two independent, separately negotiated exchange agreements with institutional holders (the "Investors") of its 8% senior unsecured notes due 2020 (the "Notes"). Together the agreements represent a debt reduction of $20,950,000 par value of Notes.

In the first exchange for the Notes, for $18,000,000 of par value, Northern will issue 6.53 million shares of common stock to the Investor. In exchange for certain guarantees, the Investor has agreed to a seven month lock-up period, subject to certain exceptions.

In the second exchange for the Notes, for $2,950,000 of par value, Northern will issue $2,950,000 of common stock to the Investor based on a negotiated forward pricing mechanism.

MANAGEMENT COMMENT

"We continue to take concrete steps to strengthen our balance sheet. As signified by our recently closed Salt Creek acquisition, we continue to grow cash flow through both acquisitions and the drill bit, and driving down absolute leverage will further enhance our competitive position," said Nick O'Grady, Northern's Chief Financial Officer. "This represents a permanent reduction of fixed charges, a key to driving increased returns for our shareholders over the long term, with a lower risk profile."

This announcement is neither an offer to exchange nor a solicitation of an offer to exchange any securities. The exchanges are exempt from registration under Section 3(a)(9) of the Securities Act of 1933.

SAFE HARBOR

This press release contains forward-looking statements regarding future events and future results that are subject to the safe harbors created under the Securities Act of 1933 (the "Securities Act") and the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the "Exchange Act"). All statements other than statements of historical facts included in this release regarding Northern's financial position, business strategy, plans and objectives of management for future operations, industry conditions, and indebtedness covenant compliance are forward-looking statements. When used in this release, forward-looking statements are generally accompanied by terms or phrases such as "estimate," "project," "predict," "believe," "expect," "continue," "anticipate," "target," "could," "plan," "intend," "seek," "goal," "will," "should," "may" or other words and similar expressions that convey the uncertainty of future events or outcomes. Items contemplating or making assumptions about actual or potential future sales, market size, collaborations, and trends or operating results also constitute such forward-looking statements.

Forward-looking statements involve inherent risks and uncertainties, and important factors (many of which are beyond Northern's control) that could cause actual results to differ materially from those set forth in the forward-looking statements, including the following: changes in crude oil and natural gas prices, the pace of drilling and completions activity on Northern's properties, Northern's ability to acquire additional development opportunities, changes in Northern's reserves estimates or the value thereof, general economic or industry conditions, nationally and/or in the communities in which Northern conducts business, changes in the interest rate environment, legislation or regulatory requirements, conditions of the securities markets, Northern's ability to raise or access capital, changes in accounting principles, policies or guidelines, financial or political instability, acts of war or terrorism, and other economic, competitive, governmental, regulatory and technical factors affecting Northern's operations, products, services and prices.

Northern has based these forward-looking statements on its current expectations and assumptions about future events. While management considers these expectations and assumptions to be reasonable, they are inherently subject to significant business, economic, competitive, regulatory and other risks, contingencies and uncertainties, most of which are difficult to predict and many of which are beyond Northern's control. Northern does not undertake any duty to update or revise any forward-looking statements, except as may be required by the federal securities laws.
